Al Tanween (Nunation) & its 5 divisions

Al Tanween is: a non-vowelled noon (Noon saakinah) that is affixed to the end of the noun in pronunciation and in connected speech. The noun is void of the Noon in writing and when a stop is made on it.

Al Tanween has 3 divisions:

1. Tanween marked by a Fathah (its symbol is two Fathas).
2. Tanween marked by a Kasrah (it symbol is two kasras).
3. Tanween marked by a Dhammah (its symbol is two dhammas).

→ Tanween is specific to the independent nouns and does not exist in the letters or the verbs.

→ The noun marked by a Fathah has an additional Alif at its end and two Fathas are placed on the tanween letter. Ex: رَبِّكَ سُبْحًا فَجَنًا

→ The Alif is not added at the end if the last letter in the word is:

- a) Hamzah on the Alif. Ex: ( هَذَا ، هَذَا )
- b) Hamzah preceded by Alif. Ex: ( رُبْعًا ، رُبْعًا ، رُبْعًا )
- c) Closed Taa'. Ex: ( جَلَّةٌ ، رُبْعَةٌ ، حَجْرَةٌ )

→ The tanween Alif that is marked by a Fathah is connected to what precedes it in writing except with the 6 letters that do not connect to what follows them in writing (الألف ، الدال ، الذال ، الراء ، الزاي ، الواو)
